

THE SCORCHED

the Scorched is a one of a kind, stylistic and eclectic rock band based in the Southwest United States. Their sound has been described as addictive and impossible to emulate. Experienced songwriters and cousins Kris Tuttle and Wade Eno, guitar specialist Josh Ritz, along with power percussionist Derek Carlson, and multi instrumentalist and Berkeley graduate, Sam Rasmussen; combine their styles to urge the listener to embark on a journey of true, raw emotion. Their unique, melodic and radical alternative progressive rock style, unwavering persistence and devotion to touring and consistently recording and producing awe inspiring rock has earned the Scorched prestige and respect throughout the music community as well as an ever expanding fan base throughout the world.

Make the Scorched a regular part of your playlist and reignite rock with feeling. Welcome to the Revolution.
